BUSINESS, MANAGEMENT AND ADMINISTRATION
Students explore all aspects of business and technology. BMA students will study business skills, computer applications and office processes through a variety of hands-on learning activities.

Career Options
• Entrepreneur
• Manager
• Accounts Receivable Specialist
• Data Entry Specialist

CONSTRUCTION REMODELING AND REPAIR
This hands-on course introduces students to every aspect of the construction and remodeling. Examples of course topics include framing, roofing, electrical, plumbing, tiling and landscaping.

Career Options
• Roofer
• Drywall Installer
• Door/Window Installer
• Electrician’s Assistant
• Plumbing Assistant

CONSTRUCTION TECHNOLOGY
In the Construction Technology course, students learn the skills necessary to build a home. Some areas of study include floor framing, wall framing, roofing, electrical, plumbing, insulation, and drywall.

Career Options
• Rough & Finish Carpenter
• Mason
• Painter
• Electrician’s Assistant

CULINARY ARTS
This is a lab-based course that provides the training necessary for employment in the culinary-focused areas of food production, management, and guest services. Students also earn industry-recognized certification.

Career Options
• Line Cook, Host, Cashier
• Caterer
• Sous Chef
• Restaurant Manager

DIGITAL MULTIMEDIA
Students will learn entry-level skills in the areas of graphic and web design. Along with learning the technical components, students will also learn basic business concepts.

Career Options
• Graphic Designer
• Web Developer
• Digital Marketing Specialist
• I.T. Help Desk Tech Support
HEALTH OCCUPATIONS - E.M.T.
The EMT program provides students with both the academic foundations of health care and hands-on training in the skills necessary for direct patient care following high school graduation.

Career Options
• Emergency Medical Technician
• Emergency Room Technician
• Allied Health Careers

HEALTH OCCUPATIONS - NURSING ASSISTANT
Nursing Assistant students gain both the academic foundations of health care and hands-on training in the skills needed for direct patient care following high school graduation.

Career Options
• Certified Nursing Assistant
• Medical Assistant
• Registered Nurse
• Allied Health Careers

JUNIOR RESERVES OFFICER TRAINING CORPS (JROTC)
JROTC improves the character, mind, physical capacity, self-discipline, and leadership abilities of students. We do not recruit but do use a military structure to organize students and allow them the opportunity to lead others.

Career Options
• Manager or Supervisor
• Military Service
• First Responder
• Civil Government Service

MACHINE TOOL & CNC
Learn how to safely operate machine tools and how to use measuring tools. Emphasis is placed on safety and metal shop theory. This class blends hands-on learning with lecture and coursework.

Career Options
• Machinist
• Tool and Die Maker
• Plastic Injection Mold Engineer
• CNC Operator

WELDING & FABRICATION
Welding and Fabrication provides students with training in welding and metal fabrication. Students gain valuable skills in the processes of gas, ARC, MIG and TIG welding.

Career Options
• Production Welder
• Structural Steel Fabricator
• Sheet Metal Fabricator
• Prototype/Design Fabricator

NOTICE OF NONDISCRIMINATION - The Taylor School District does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, national origin, age, height, weight, marital status, handicap, or disability in any of its programs or activities. The following persons have been designated to handle inquiries regarding the nondiscrimination policies:

Inquiries by students and/or their parents/guardians related to discrimination on the basis of disability/handicap should be directed to: Director of Special Education, Taylor School District | 23033 Northline Road, Taylor, MI 48180 | (734) 374-1200

All other inquiries related to discrimination should be directed to: Assistant Superintendent, Taylor School District | 23033 Northline Road, Taylor, MI 48180 | (734) 374-1200